

NASP

National Association of Safety Professionals

Description:

This course is designed specifically for managers and safety engineers, who are ready to implement the programs of occupational health and safety in their work and who are investigating and analysis of incidents and those responsible for the identification and analysis of risks for all work activities at work.

Objectives:

- course is designed to provide participants with the skills and knowledge required to become a manager who received training are able to implement programs and plans of health and safety in the workplace.
- To provide participants with the necessary skills to conduct the investigation and risk analysis
- Training of participants on the implementation of risk assessment and absorbing a risk management techniques
- to prepare for the implementation of plans and procedures relating to emergencies
- Training of participants on the inspection of the work site and Hazard identification and control it.
- enable participants to develop training programs for safety Of the target or who will attend:
- Security managers and occupational health and safety and the environment and the staff of environmental protection and construction engineers and factories
- officers and safety inspectors and supervisors of security and occupational health and safety.

NASP...

What the course covers:

Directives about personal safety
Model safety rules in the workplace according to NASP
Introduction to the concept of OSHA and what's relationship with NASP
Methods of instruction and safety training and instructions
Pre-planning for emergencies
Accident investigation and report writing
Risk analysis work
Audit in the field of safety
Safety to use chemicals
Transport and handling of hazardous materials
Bulletin of material safety data
Record transport hazardous materials and waste
Inspection and survey your occupational safety and health and the environment
Diseases associated with blood
Safety measures of chemical hazards
Mismatch in the work environment
Close sources of energy and put banners
Hurdles protection equipment
Escape routes fires
Violence in the fields of employment
Run and work surfaces
Fall protection
Welding and Cutting
Work safely with the regimes ROM

Certification:

Upon pass exam the student will earn passed certificate from iasp campus:
www.iaspcampus.com

Days: 5 days + 1 day Exam

Fees (include exam): Contact Us